FESTIVE CELEBRATIONS

Welcoming 2026

Residents and families came together to enjoy a special morning celebration, complete with a wee glass of Prosecco and the stirring sound of the pipes. We were delighted to welcome piper Liam Rogers, whose wonderful performance filled the home with music and cheer, creating a warm and festive atmosphere. It was a joyful way to mark Hogmanay, shared with laughter, smiles, and a real sense of celebration as we welcomed the New Year together.

Santa's Grotto

We officially declared our Santa's Grotto open and welcomed families, as well as local nurseries and schools, and it was a great success. The grotto was beautifully decorated with twinkling lights, a Christmas tree, and seasonal decorations. Residents loved welcoming the children into the home and sharing in their excitement at meeting Santa.

Christmas Fayre

November was a busy time for all our crafters when we held our Christmas Craft Fayre. Residents, families, and staff enjoyed browsing a lovely selection of handmade crafts, decorations, and thoughtful gift ideas. The fayre was accompanied by soothing music from a harpist, warm conversation, and a few songs sung by the residents and staff choir.

STAFF NEWS & UPDATES

10 Days Of Christmas

To celebrate the 10 days of Christmas, we proudly recognised our wonderful team with a special Employee of the Day award. Each day, a member of staff was acknowledged for going above and beyond. A huge thank you to all those who were nominated and to our amazing staff team.

SEASONAL EVENTS

Halloween Party

October finished with a flourish at our Halloween Party. The party brought plenty of spooky fun and smiles to the home as residents, staff, and families dressed up in festive costumes and enjoyed the celebrations together. The home was decorated with pumpkins, autumn colours, and Halloween decorations. Residents enjoyed music and tasty Halloween treats. It was a wonderful opportunity for everyone to come together and create happy memories.
